“ Ann was such a kind and thoughtful person. Wilbur and I so enjoyed all the bean soup and corn bread she would make for us. She made the best Christmas treats and was so caring when Wilbur passed away. She will be truly missed, and your family will not be the same without her. My love and prayers go out to all of you.

“ Anna was a wonderful student that I called "Big Ann" because she had such good control over my daughter that we called "Little Anne". She was one person that could always get Anne to smile and to settle down if she was crying. The whole Stanton family holds a special placer in my heart which is hurting right now because of your loss. I could not attend the Celebration of Life. Mike drove me to Liberty Hall at about noon, but I could tell it was too dangerous to try on my own and he has to be gone this afternoon. My thoughts will be with you.

“ My heart goes out to the family of Anna Mae. I am so sorry for your loss. I have such fun memories of spending time at Alfie and Jerry's house in Marquette Heights watching all the girls swim, laugh and play together..and be a little onry. That is when Anna and all of them were much younger... but great memories. Anna will be greatly missed....hope you can find some comfort in all the great memories you made together.

I am so sorry for your loss. I remember when she was expecting Josh and needed some things for him. I was so happy to be able to give things that I had saved. And then after Josh was born, the whole family came to our wiener roast.

*She is in a better place with the Lord.
My prayers go out for the family.*

“ It is such a tragedy to lose someone so special..Anna was kind, generous, witty, and caring. We attended church and school together while children, and I worked with her in housekeeping at the Concorde Inn in Pekin many years ago. We talked of our children and the pride in Josh was so obvious. She was proud of her family as well. She never had an unkind word to say about anyone. May God grant comfort in your grief and may your memories give you peace in your sorrow. Heaven has surely gained an angel. I'm sure she is singing in the blessed Angel band and reuniting with Jerry. My thoughts and prayers to all the family.
