“ Belated condolences on your loss. I am praying for you and your family, that God will give you comfort in this difficult time. I had the privilege of working with Brian at Morton Metal craft. I got to know him best in the last 2 years there. We had a lot of common thoughts about the company. He was a good person and I am going to miss him, but will remember the many conversations we had.

“ Our thoughts and prayers are with all of you at this sad time and as you go through the difficult process of grieving the loss of your dad, brother, son, uncle, husband and friend. We know how close the Bouris family has always been and the support you give one another, which is a wonderful blessing. We especially wish for healing and peace for Brian's beautiful children, Adam and Breanna. We are so sorry for your loss and take comfort knowing Brian is now at peace in a better place.
Love to you,
Jodi, Kelli and Cody

“ My thoughts and prayers are with you Randy. My heart goes out to you and Brians wife and children. Never had the pleasure of meeting him and his family but know he had to be an awesome man, husband and father as well as a great brother and friend to you. Keep him in your thoughts and in your hearts forever, for he will always be with you throughout your life. Keep the great times you have shared forever with you. My sincerest condolences to all your family.
