“ We've heard several people give their thoughts about Dan this past week. Some were friends & family, and some were simply customers of his when he worked at the gas station. His gentle kindness, politeness, and respect for others were always at the top of the list of his character qualities. Mark & Carol, this is a reflection of the impact you had on this wonderful, funny young man. We continue to pray. Barb Lange

I always enjoyed talking to Dan, because he was never shy in sharing his opinion about something, plus I enjoyed his sense of humor. We had at least a couple things in common, which were wrestling, and we had both worked at gas stations, which led to many related conversations, especially wrestling related. Dan was always very respectful when he talked to you, and took an interest in what you were saying, even if he didn't agree with it. He was a deep thinker and had a heart for others. The world needs more like him. Our hearts are grieving with you Mark, Carol, and Mary. Rod Lange

“ I wish I had the words to bring you some peace and understanding, but I do not. My prayer for you is that eventually you will find some peace. Someone shared with me after the death of my husband that someday in heaven you will have the answer of why, but then it won't even matter. Very hard not to question God's plan, but The Lord is walking right beside you and knows your heart.

“ I never actually met Dan, he was a grade or so younger than me, but I would see him all around town and at the gym. I don't think you had to even meet him to know that he was a good person, that says a lot. Sorry for your loss, but this shouldn't define Dan, the good times and the time you had with him will. God Bless.

“ We are so sorry for your loss. As a parent, I cannot even imagine what you are going thru. Your son wrestled with my son Austin in high school. Dan was a good friend and a fine young man. Very polite and always had a smile. Cherish those wonderful memories of Dan and keep them close to your heart. Our thoughts and prayers are with you.

“ I was absolutely shocked when I heard about Dan. We talked about science and philosophy on a regular basis via text/email/in person when our schedules placed us both in Washington during the same days. Dan was a logical, intelligent, spiritual, fun, and an all-around great guy. I am extremely grateful that I had the honor and privilege to know him. Your family is in my thoughts.
