“ Aunt Imy was always so good natured and was willing to help. When my kids were little, at Grandma's, 3 small kids to run after. Aunt Imy just picked one of them up to help me and changed the diaper. Always laughing. Rest in peace. We will all be with you some day. God Bless!!!!

“ Imogene will be missed so much. From the time I first met her, we clicked....she reminded me of Sophia from the 'Golden Girls'. Honest, and funny to the bone....She was so kind and loving after the loss of our son Jeremy. I know this is a painful time for your family...but know she is at peace now and I can see her smile and hear her giggle. Prayers and love to you all.

She was feisty and funny and one of a kind. Always made me laugh. So glad she is now at peace. She fought the good fight, she finished the race...and now she has her crown.
