“ My deepest sympathy to you all Jim became a great friend over the many years he came by the farm to visit everyone that met him out here loved to see him come down the road often times I think it was just so I would go visit with Jim for awhile and swap stories and they could goof off but also he just changed the mood of the day if it was a tough one he would just say Wade! How you doing and usher me to his "office" for a talk spiritual at times and others just a place to talk talk. Thank you for all the good times friend!
